

WestVic Hockey Music Trivia Night

A great turnout of 75 people ensured a successful night of music trivia and games on Saturday night at the City Oval Bowling Club. Trivia-master, Michael Poulton, did a fantastic job hosting the evening, ably supported by Megan and Annie Poulton.

Players, friends and families connected with all junior and senior teams attended, along with a table from WestVic Hockey major sponsor, Bendigo Bank. The Hargreaves table walked away victorious after going into the final round equal in points to the Churcher/Ryan table.

Jason Hargreaves also managed to walk away with a giant jar of jelly beans in a coin-tossing competition, managing to get his dollar coin closest, much to the disappointment of challengers Michael Churcher and Nathan Hargreaves.

Ali Williams won the major raffle prize of a night's accommodation in Melbourne.

Thanks go to the Poulton family, Judith Yates and Gavin Mann for their efforts in the organisation/running of the night, as well as the City Oval Bowling Club for again providing the perfect venue for a WestVic Hockey function.
